

sora you're almost 16 now.
that means you need to get
your driver's license.

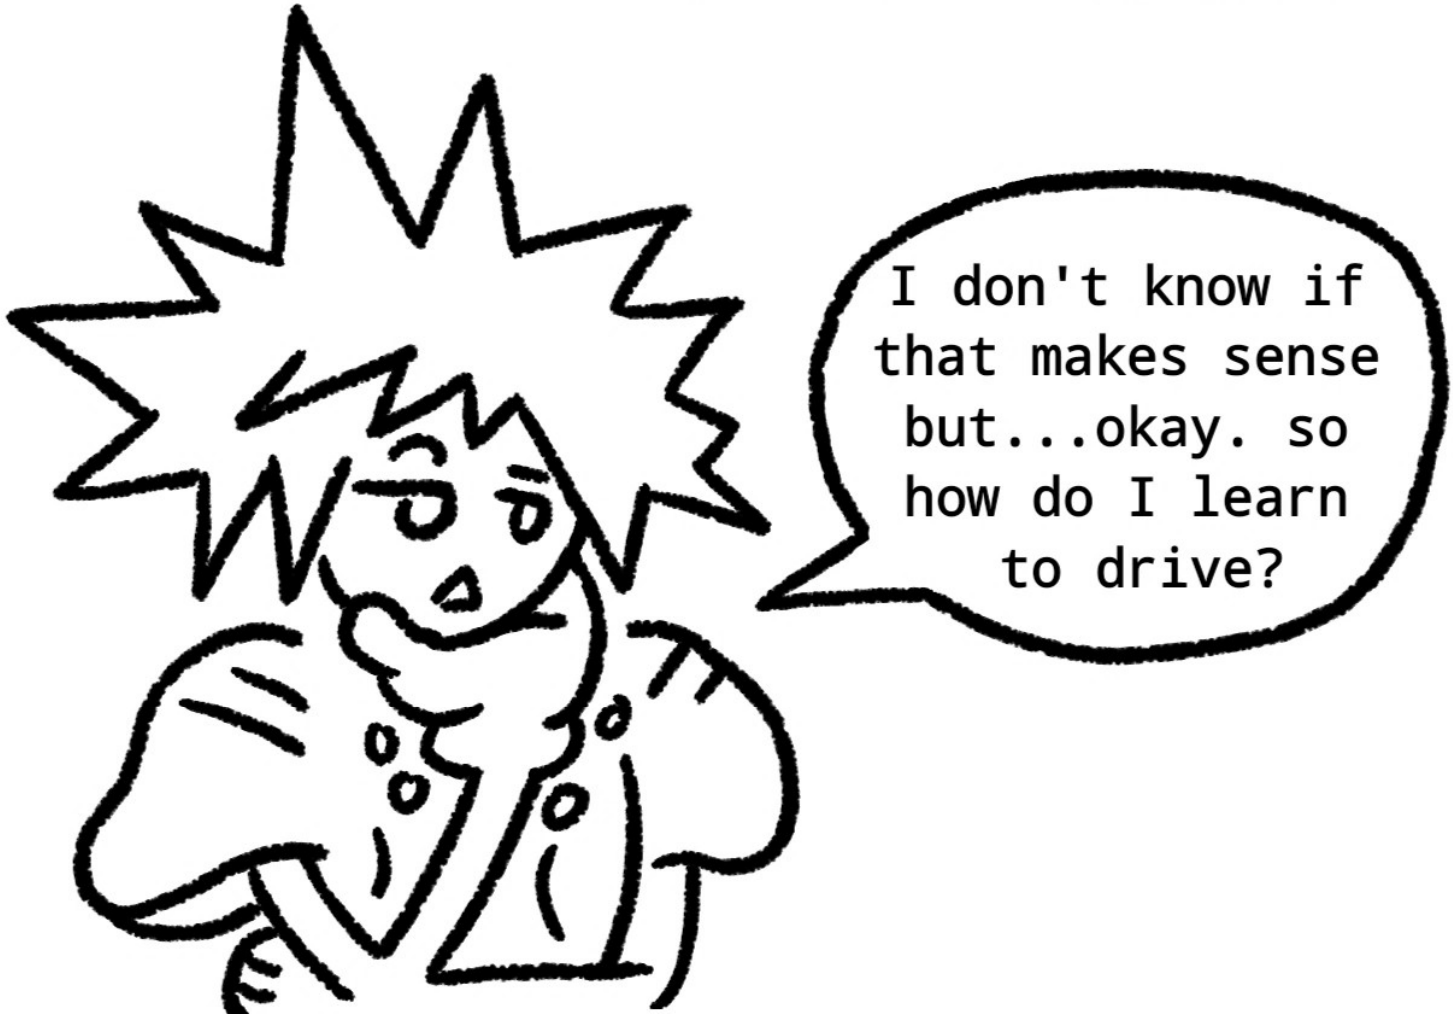

but I can
already drive
the gummi ship.

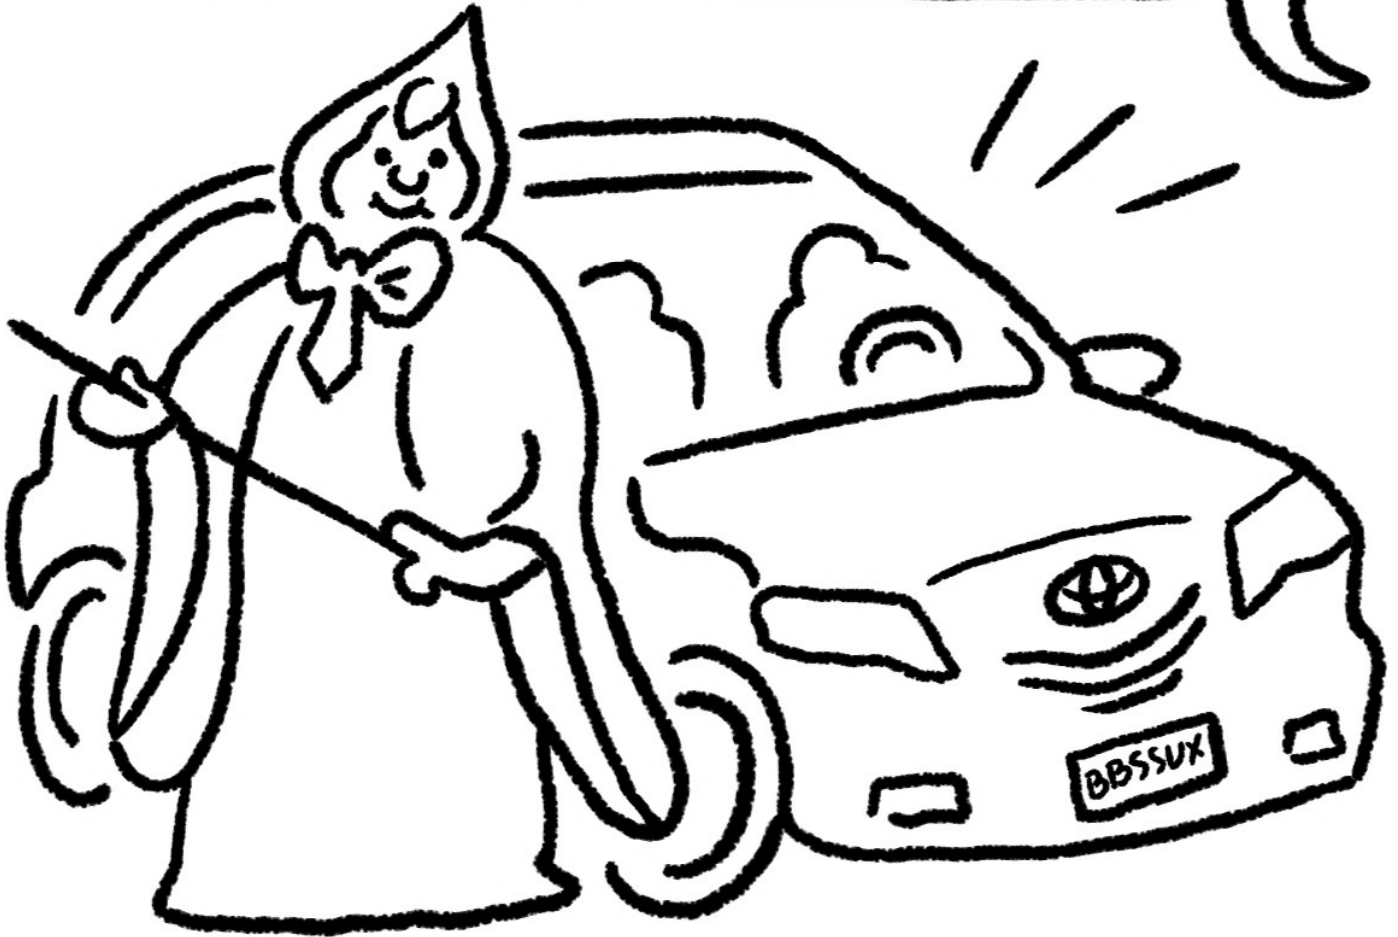

you can't drive the gummi
ship into other worlds.
it will disrupt the order.

I don't know if
that makes sense
but...okay. so
how do I learn
to drive?

the fairy godmother will give you lessons in her toyota camry. she can use her magic to control the car if needed.

can't merlin do that too?

yes, but merlin got his license
revoked back in 1963.

they might make
a comic about us
one day

why did you
turn us into
squirrels,
merlin?

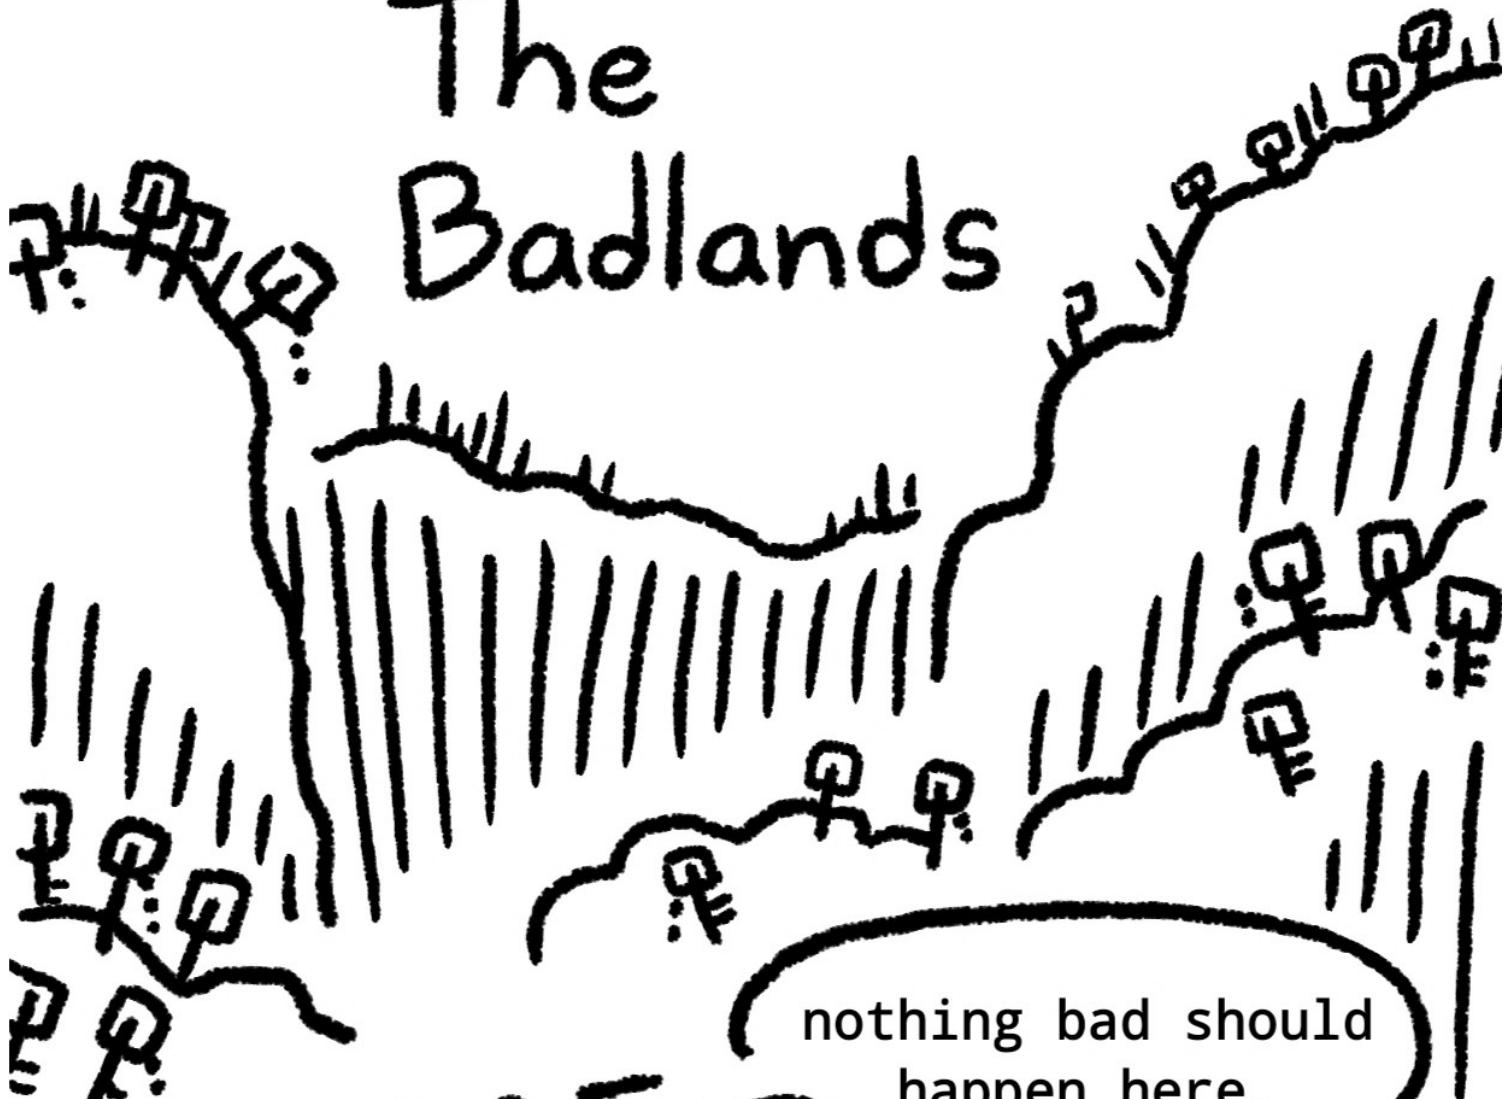

makes sense.
show us the
way, fairy
godmother!

POOF

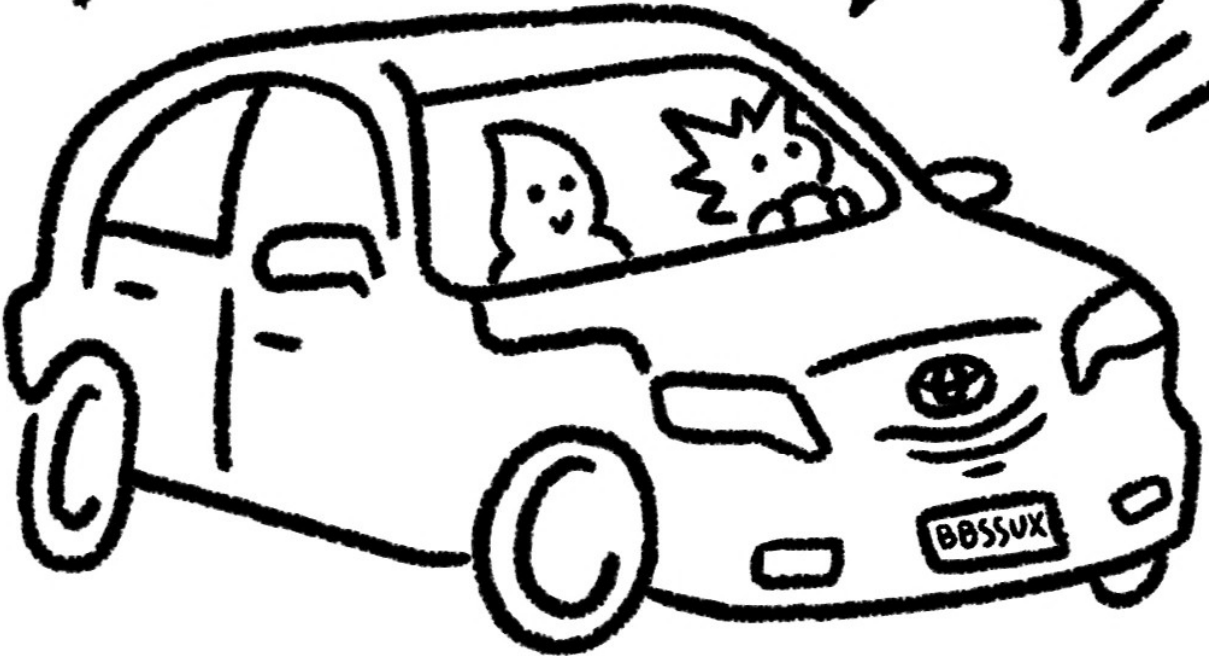

The Badlands

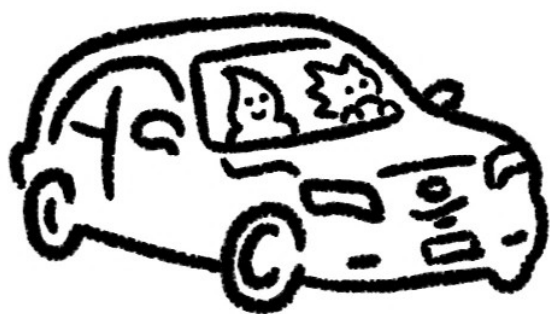

nothing bad should happen here.

POOF

okay dear, let's adjust your mirrors first.

those imbeciles!

we cannot let the
keyblade's chosen one
gain this power.

it could interfere
with our plans.

MY
BLACK
BOX!

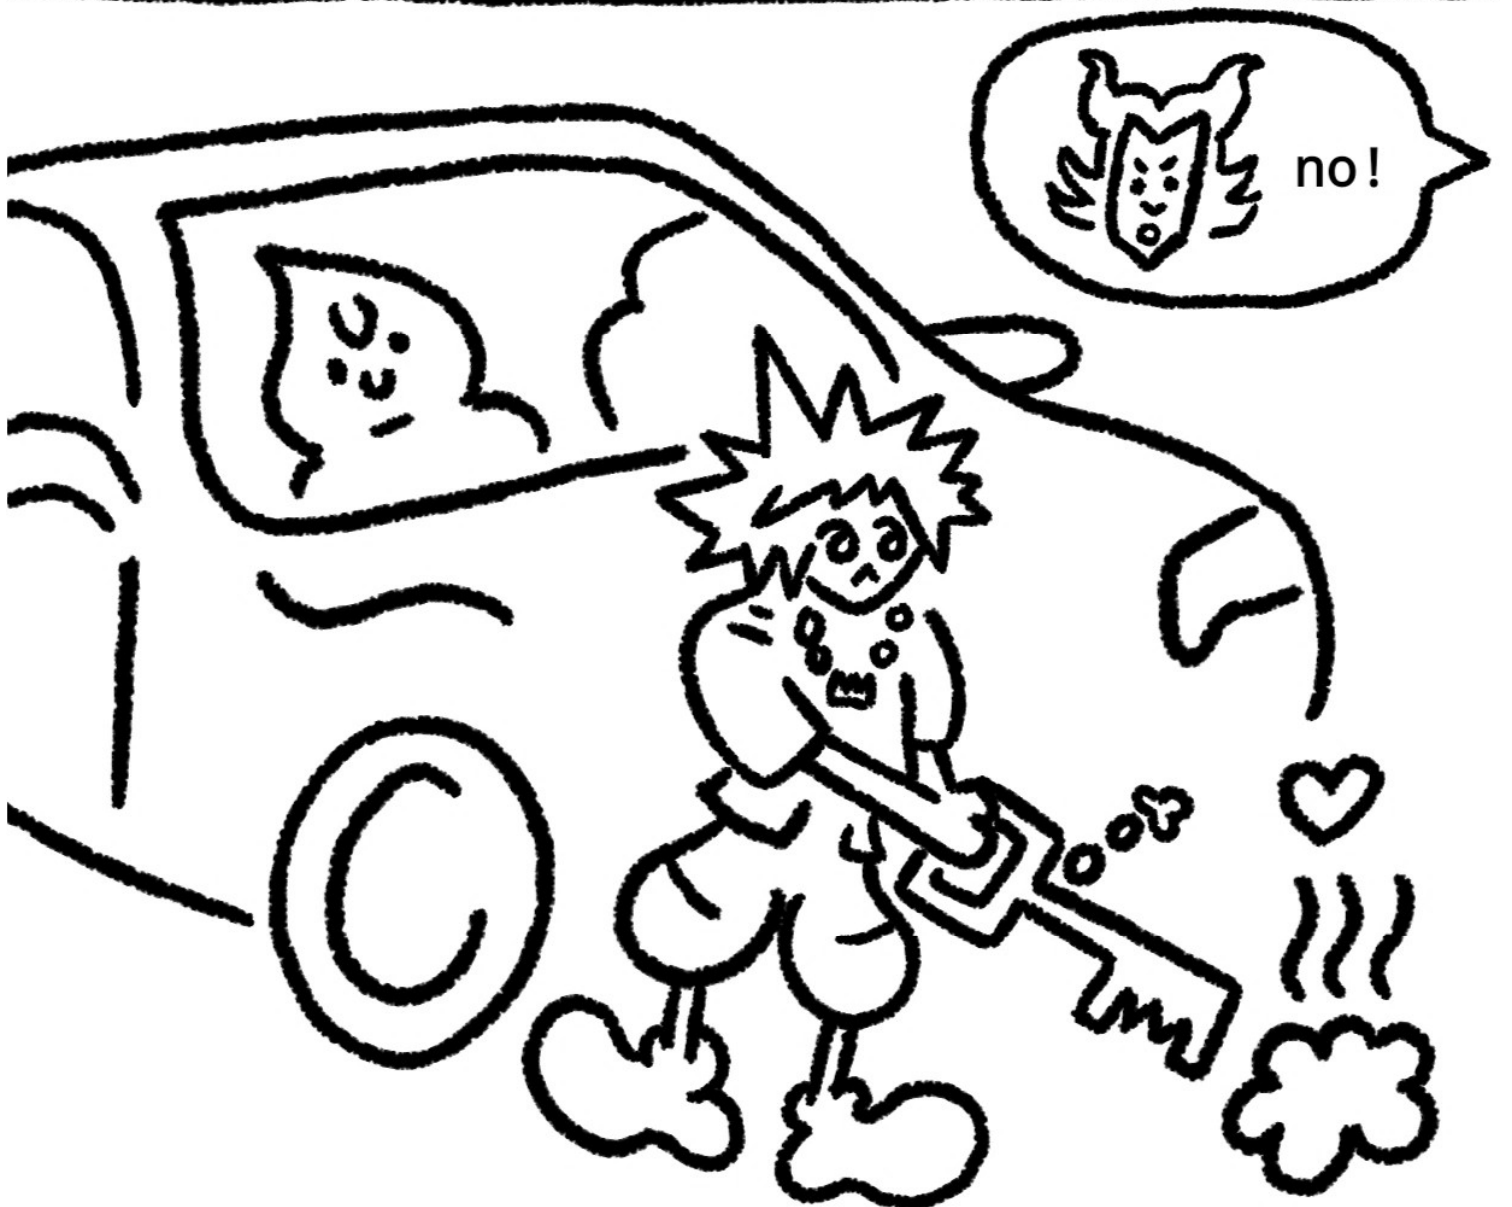

sora, look out!

quickly, sora! destroy the heartless
before the police show up!

what now?

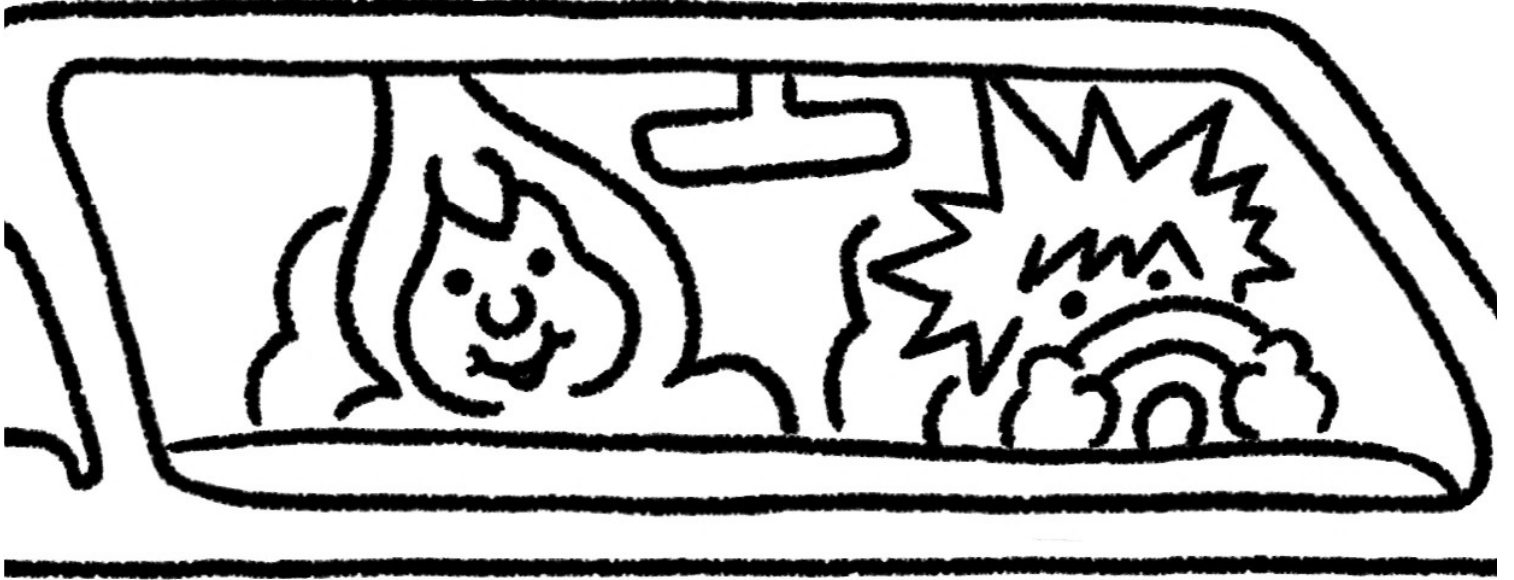

let's move on.

if we find the
black box
first, then his
new power will
be of no
consequence.

that was close, sora. i'll be more alert, but remember to use your brakes.

cursed fool...

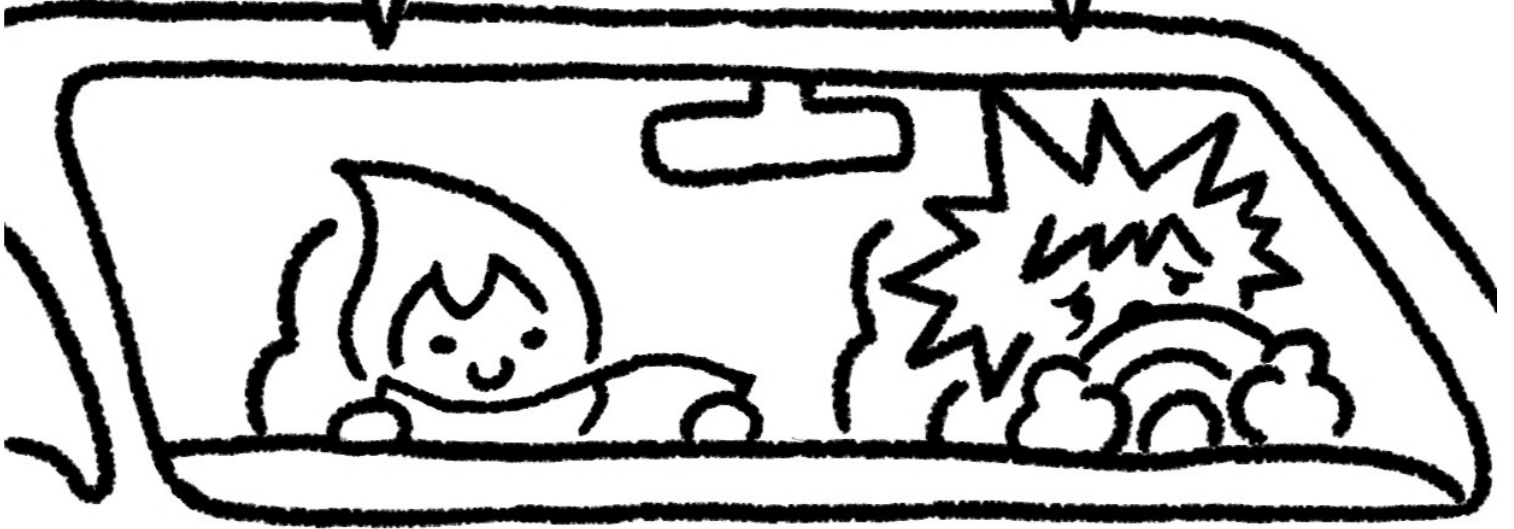

does he truly believe he
can interfere with the
organization's plan?

our next turn is coming up soon.

not again!

RRRRRR

oh no,
here come
the cops.

i'll take care of this.

At birth, Nobodies are rejected by both light and darkness.^[4] Instead, they are made to walk the realm between and doomed to a state of non-existence.^[5]

^[5] Kingdom Hearts II, Yen Sid: "A spirit that goes on even as its body fades from existence---for you see, Nobodies do not truly exist at all."

he let you off
with a warning.

curses!

PHEW

worry not, xemnas.
sora's heart is weak
without his friends.
we can use that to
our advantage.

it's time
to prove
that you're
worthy of
wielding
the car
keys.

master yen sid will
proctor your exam.

GULP

watch this!

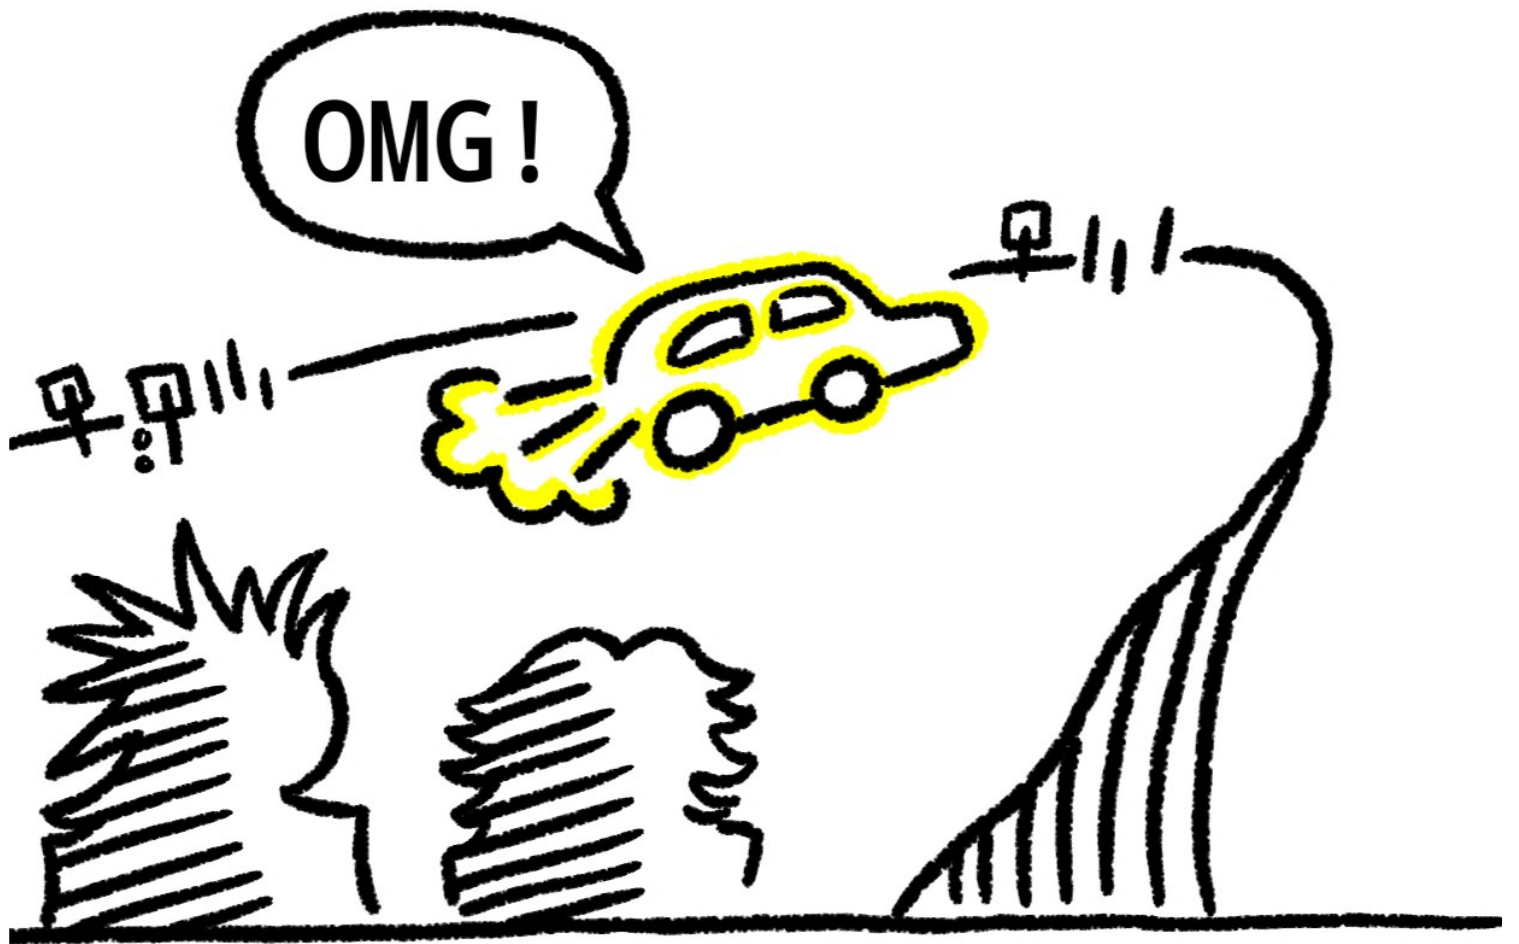

SORA you must regain control of your car.
it's already half xehanort.

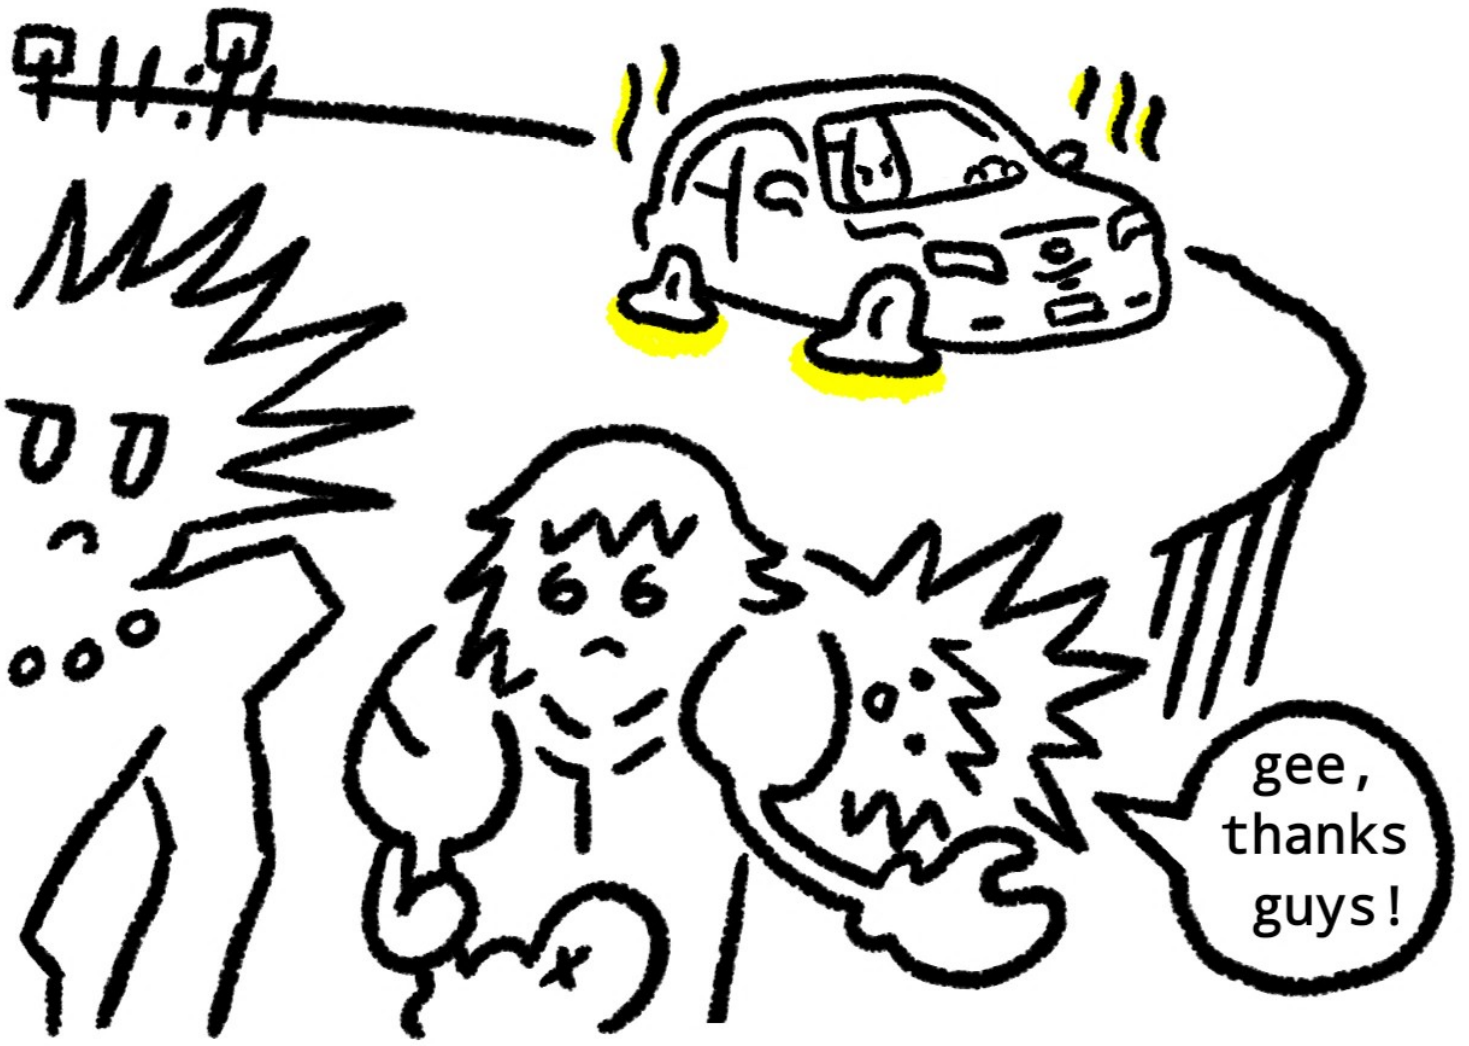

that's...
nuts!

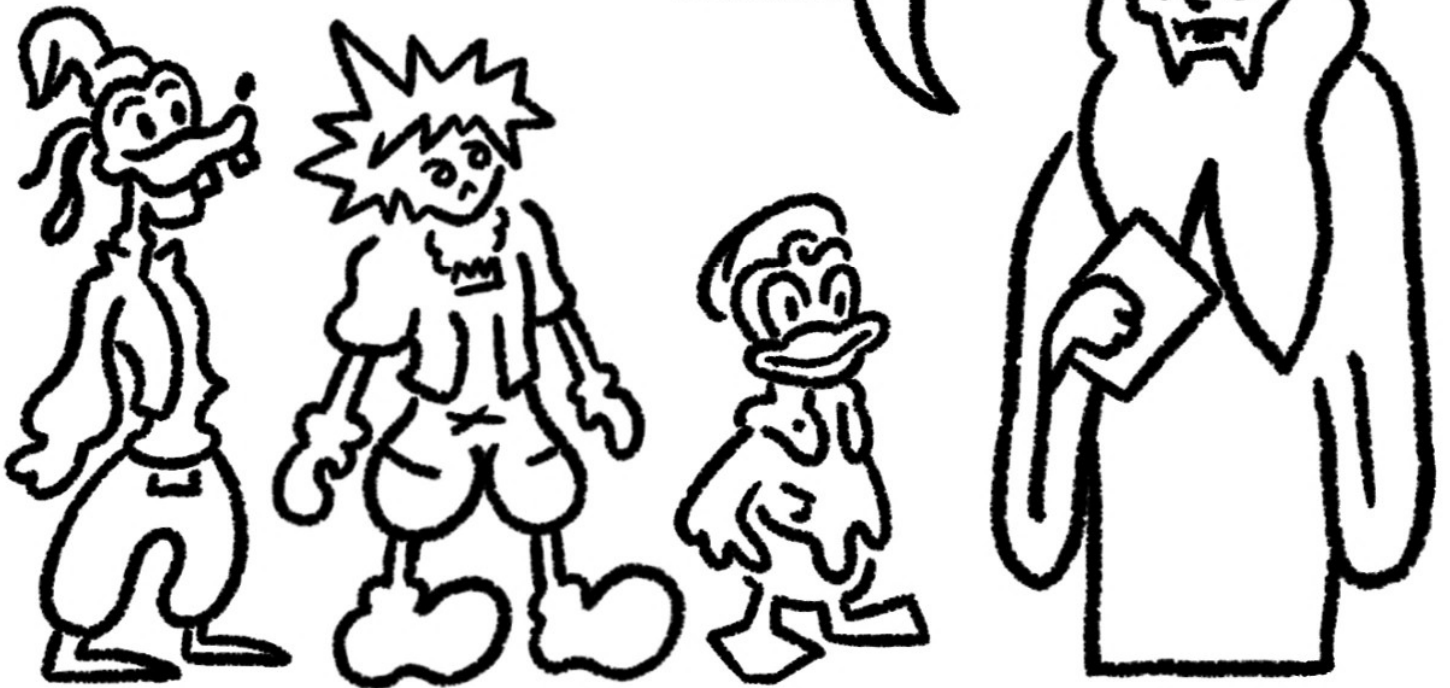

*why do i always get stuck
with the icky jobs...*

SORA you FAILED to keep control of your car and thus are NOT a car key master.

in order to earn your license, you must learn...
